LANGUAGE FUNCTIONS

Ann DeChenne
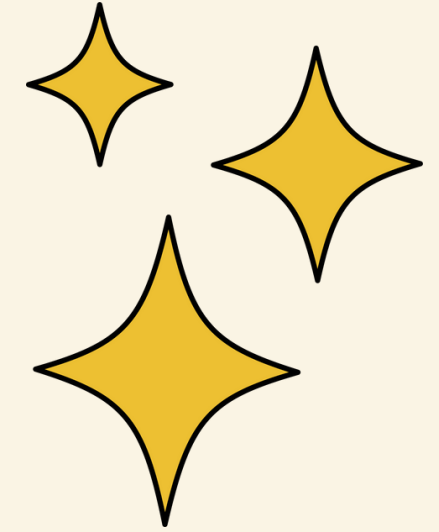

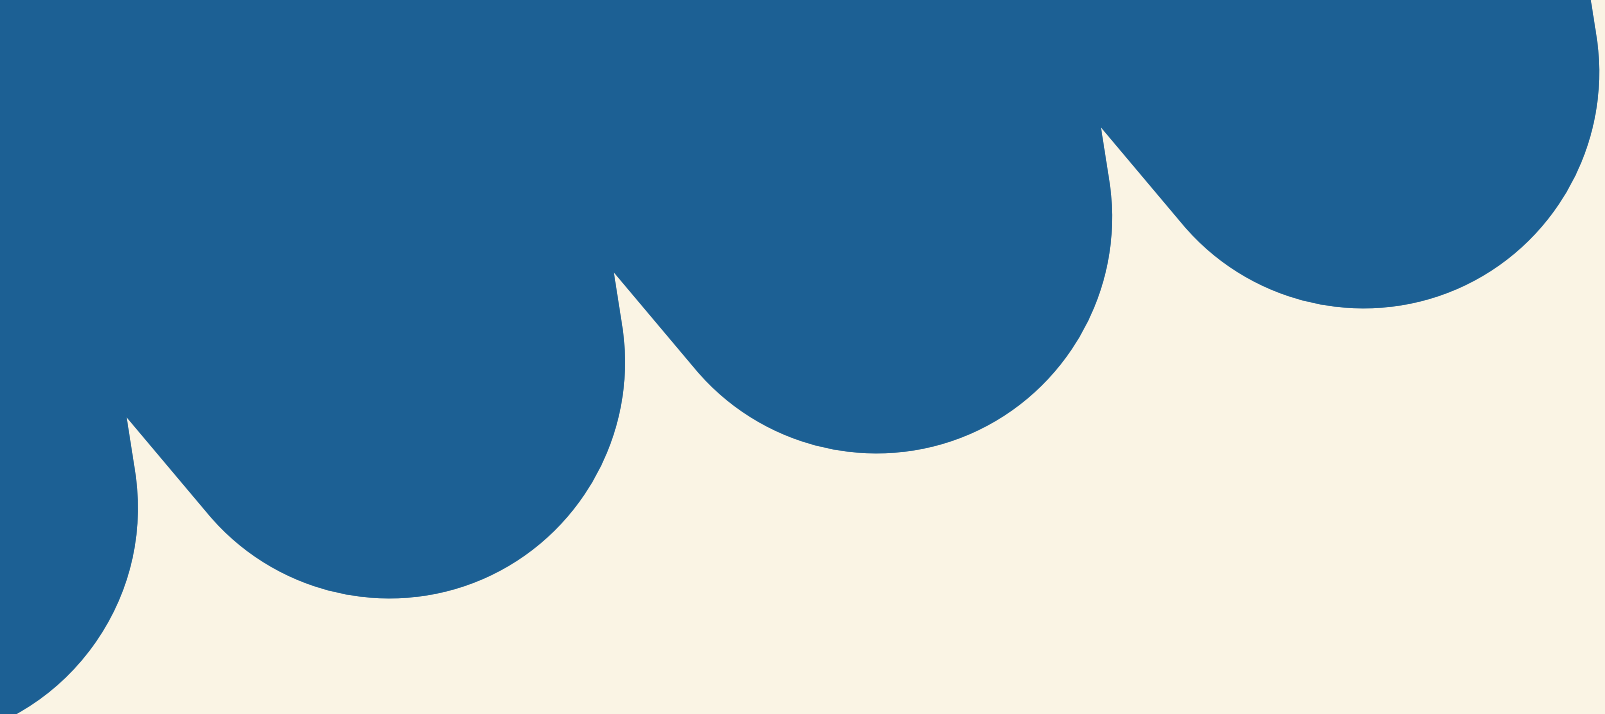

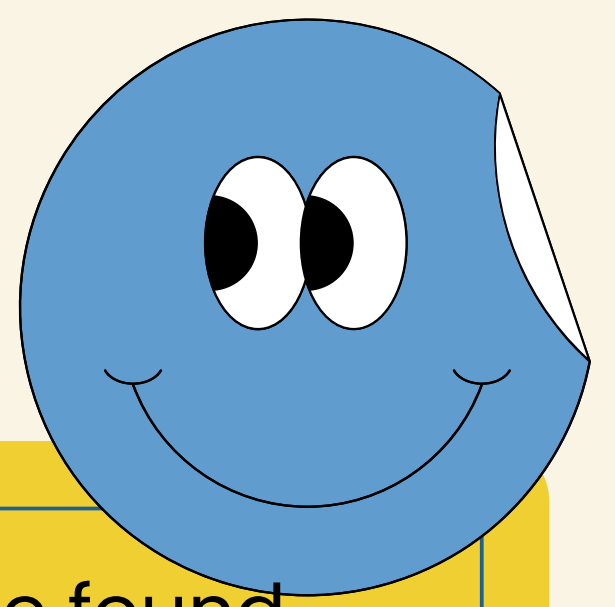

DeChenne.consulting@gmail.com

Lesson 4

OBJECTIVE THREE
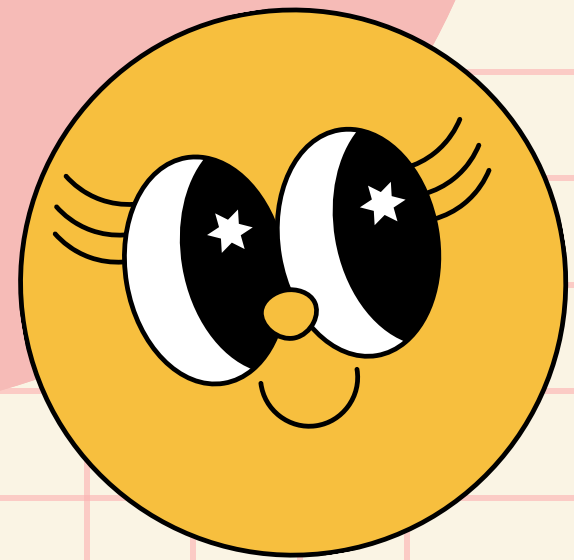

Students will learn how to identify function language to support students in the classroom.

*Describe the plot of the novel.

*How did the author's use of _ _ _ affect the story?

*Compare one character with another.

*What was the sequence of events in the article?

*What was the point the author was trying to make and why?

Language functions are found in every content area taught. Some are obvious others aren't, but they are there.

English Language Arts

*Describe the German ambassador's response to the Treaty of Versailles.

*How did the industrial revolution affect city life?

*Compare Martin Luther King's speech with Malcolm X's speech.

*What was the sequence of events that started WWI?

*Was the United State's decision to drop the second atomic bomb on Japan justified, and why or why not?

Language functions are found in every content area taught. Some are obvious, others aren't but they are there.
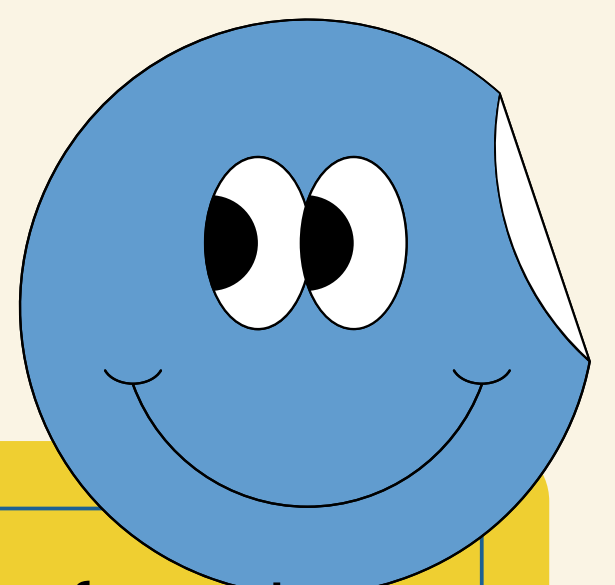

Social Studies

*Describe what you see under the microscope.

*If we block the light from the plant, what will the effect be?

*Compare that procedure's result with the second procedure.
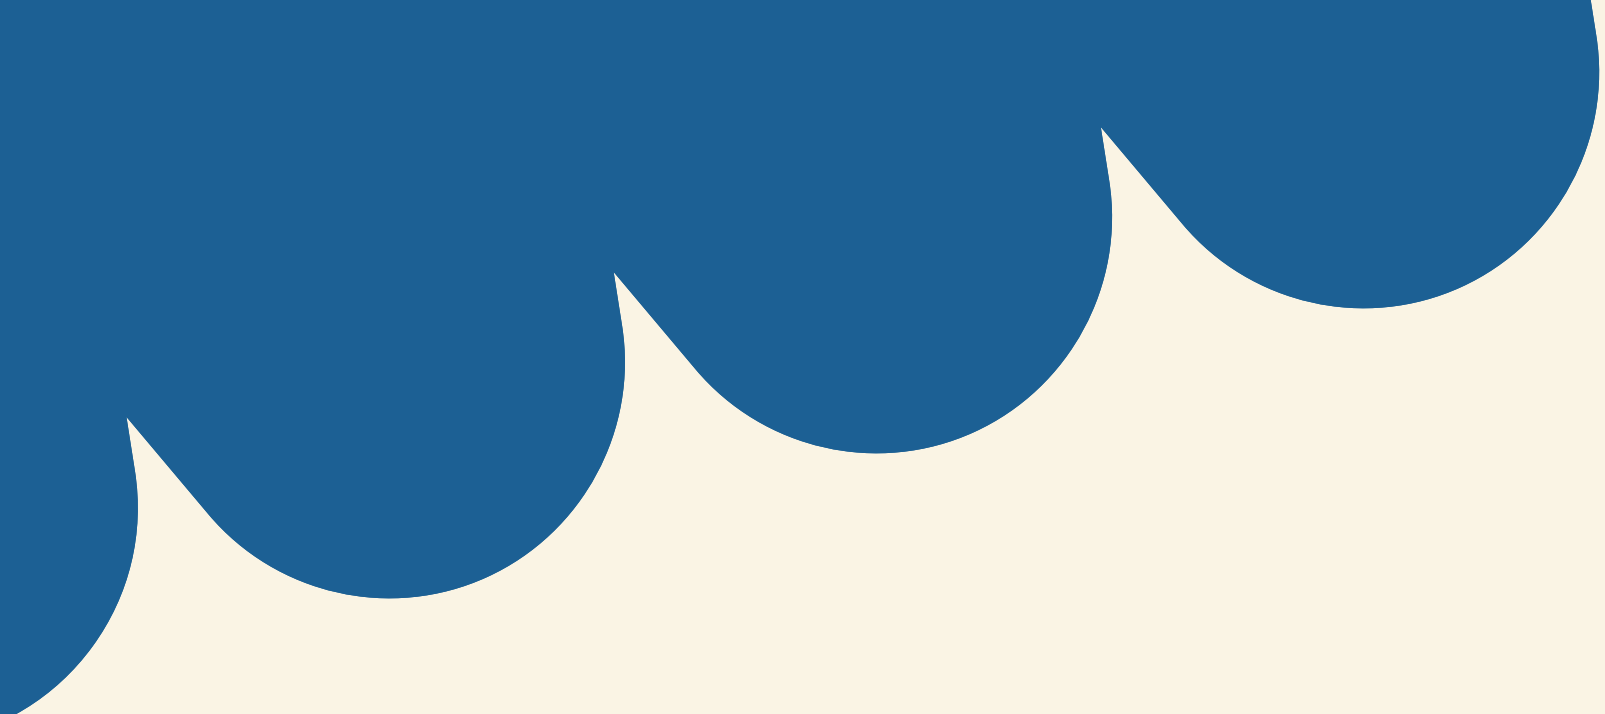

*What was the life cycle of the fly?

Language functions are found in every content area taught. Some are obvious others aren't, but they are there.
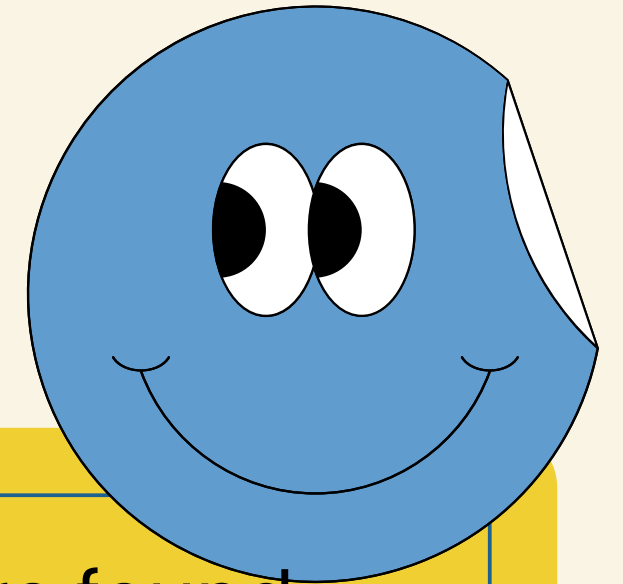

Science

*Describe the steps you used to solve that problem.

*What was the effect of changing A to B?
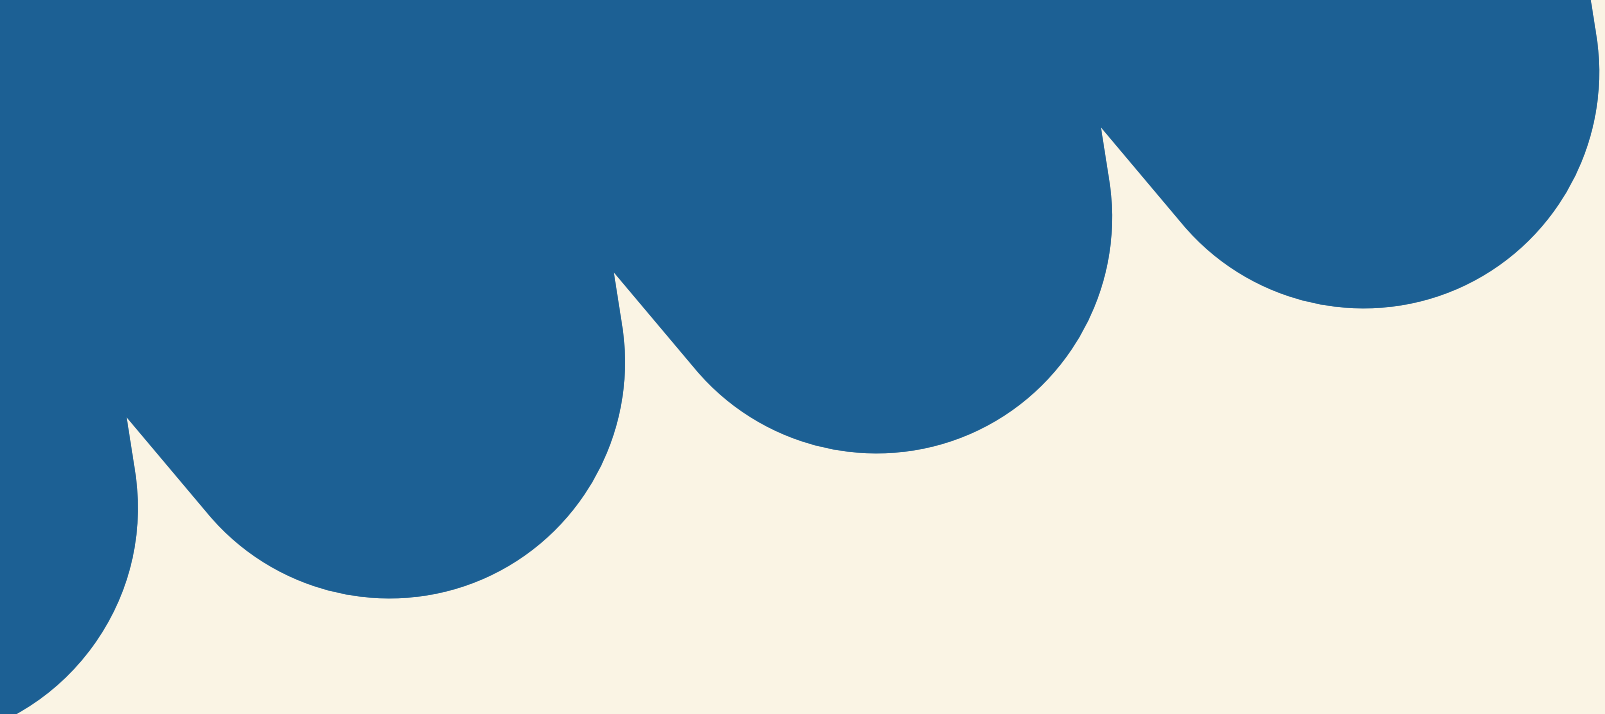

*Compare graph D with graph A how are they different?

*What is the sequence for solving that problem?

*Can you justify this answer?

Language functions are found in every content area taught. Some are obvious others aren't, but they are there.
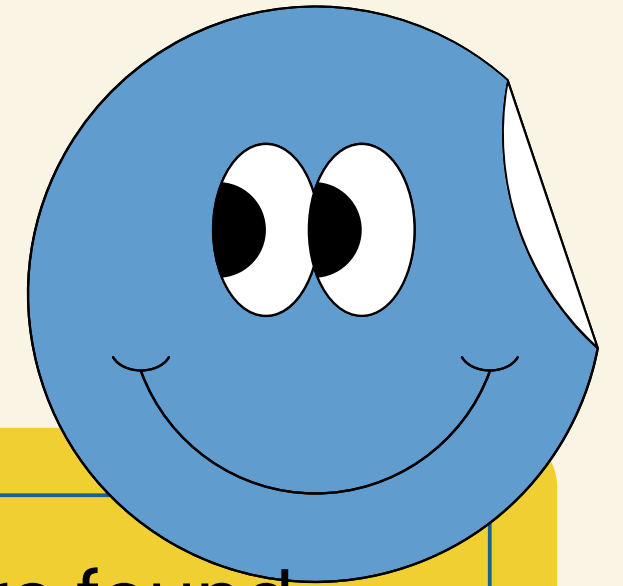

Mathematics

*Describe why you chose those colors for your painting.

*How did the composer's use of that instrument affect the composition?

*How is tennis different from badminton?

*What was the sequence of the recipe?
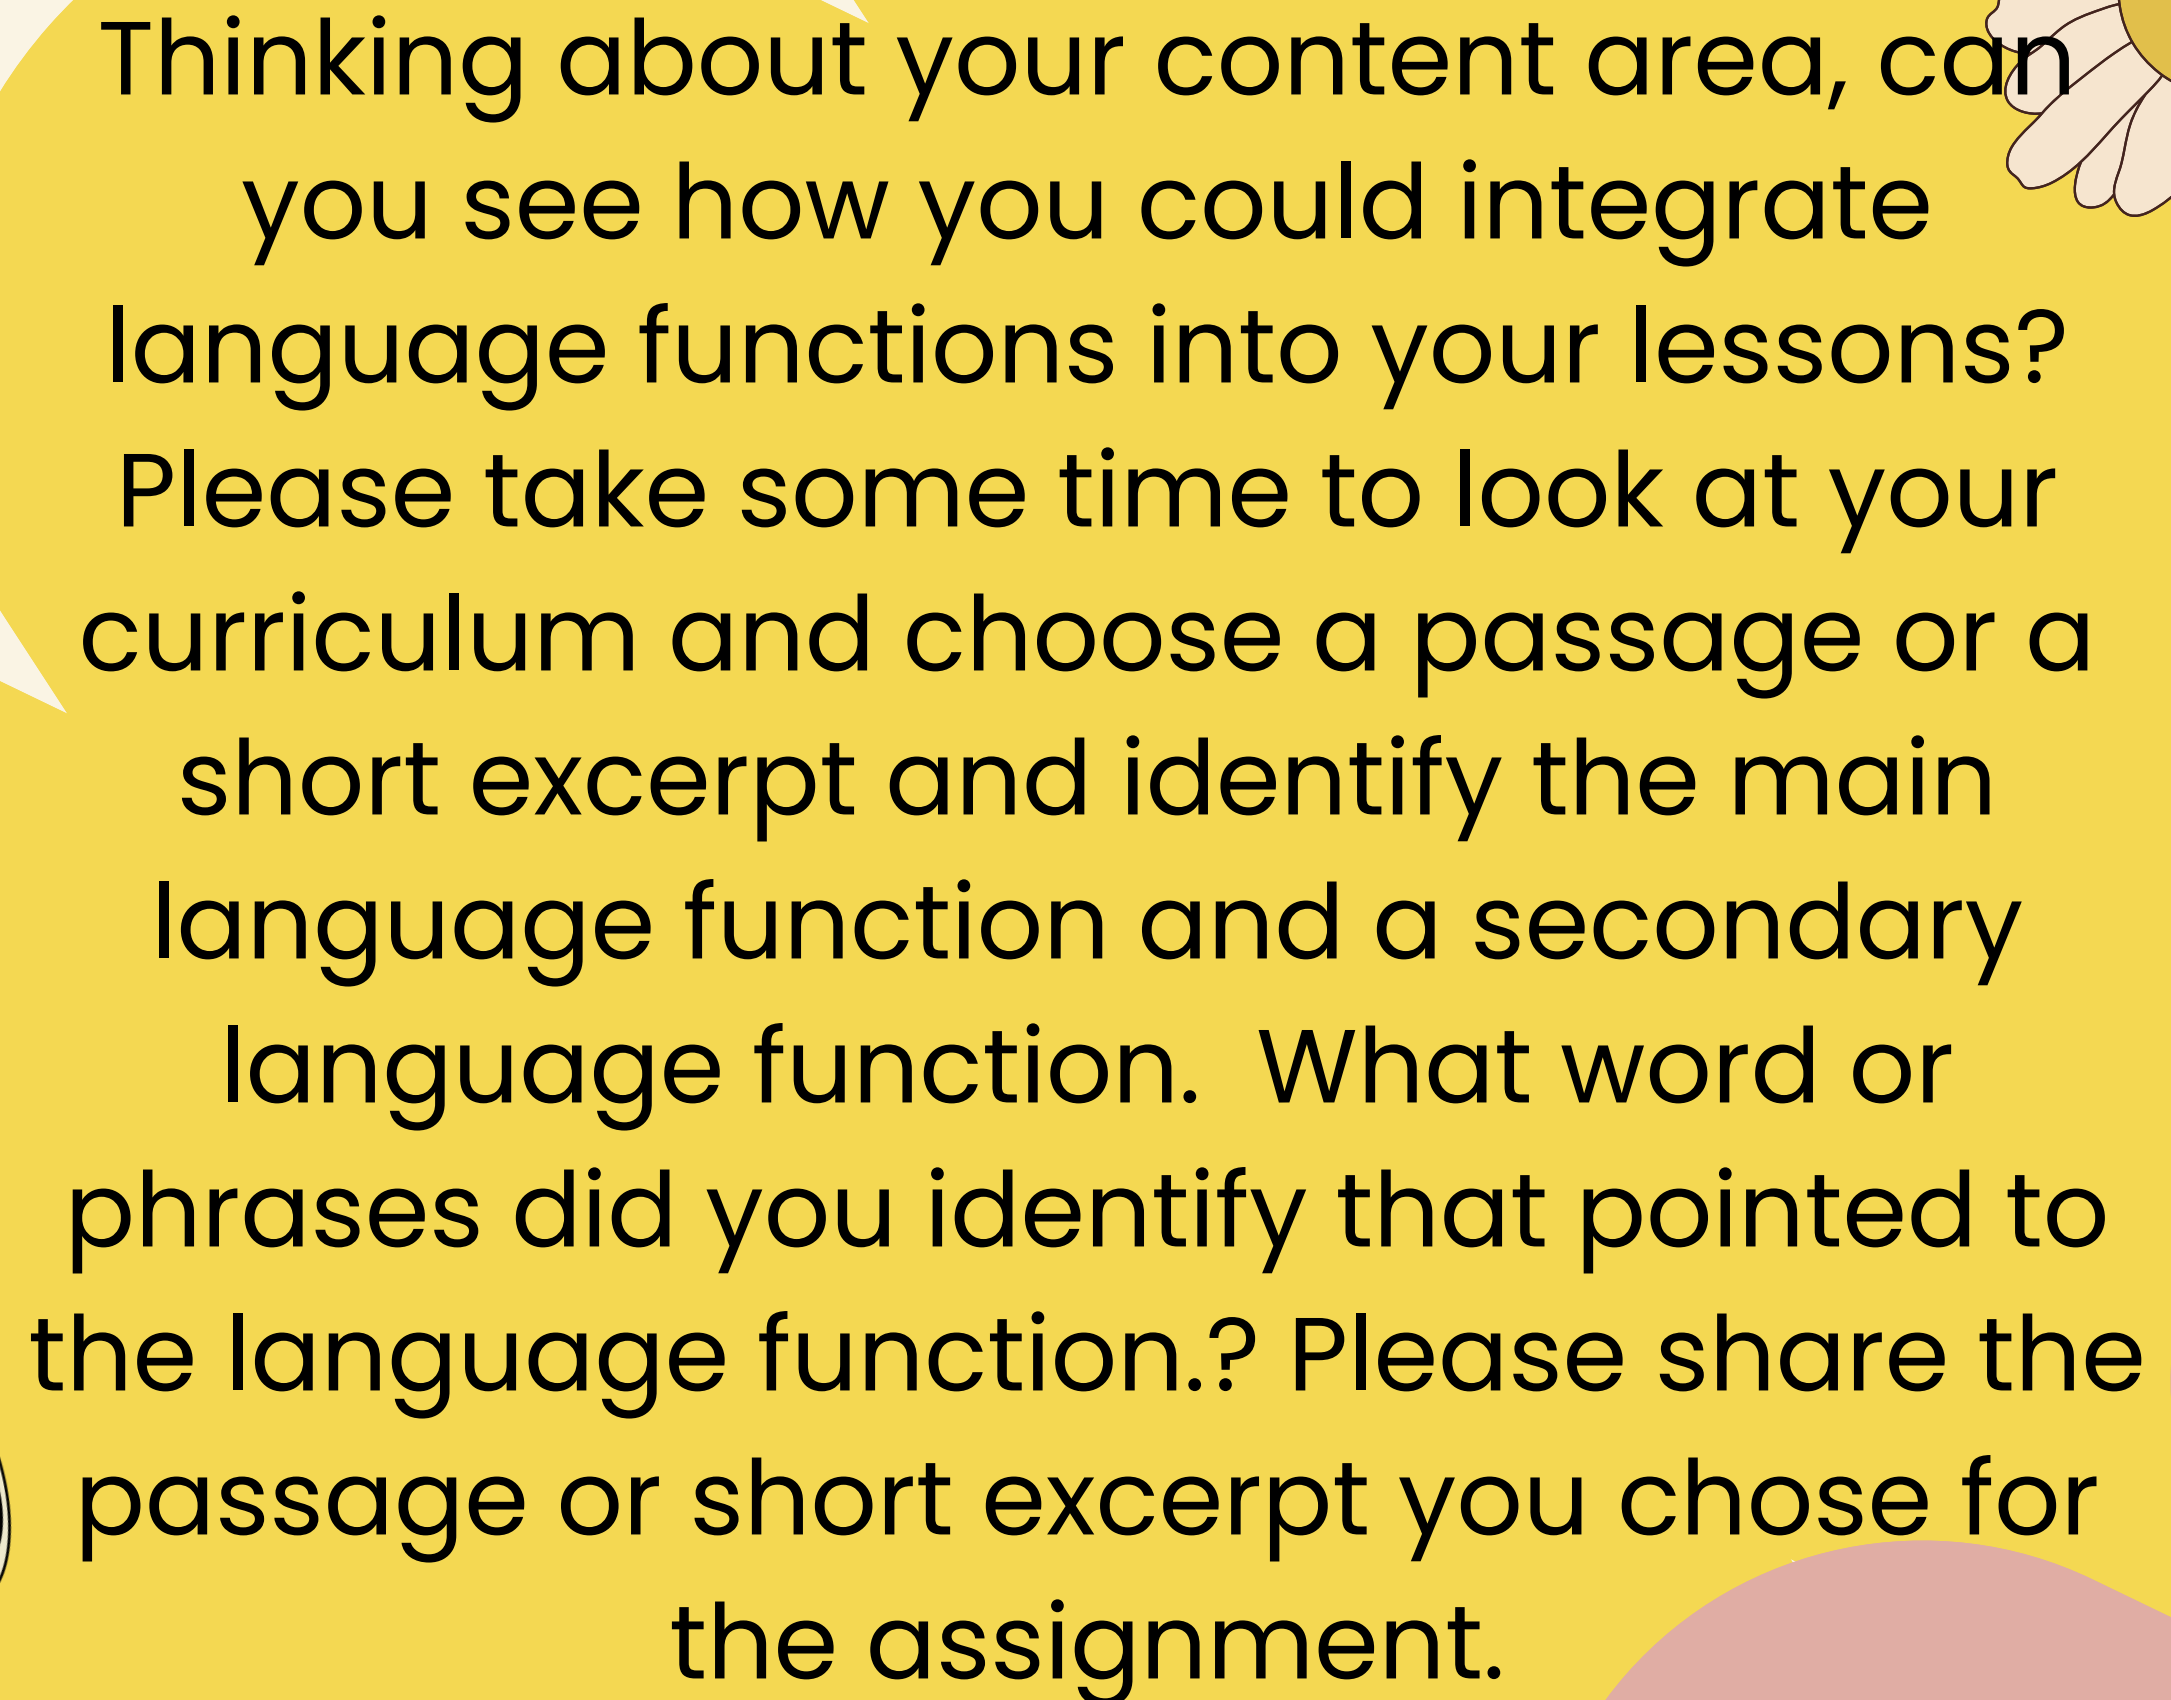

*Why did you use that tool rather than the other tool?

Language functions are found in every content area taught. Some are obvious others aren't, but they are there.

Elective Courses

ASSIGNMENT

Thinking about your content area, can you see how you could integrate language functions into your lessons? Please take some time to look at your curriculum and choose a passage or a short excerpt and identify the main language function and a secondary language function. What word or phrases did you identify that pointed to the language function.? Please share the passage or short excerpt you chose for the assignment.
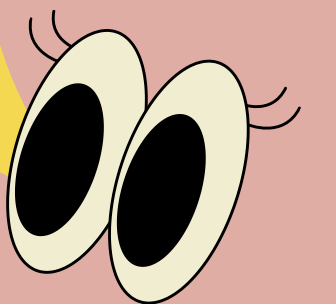

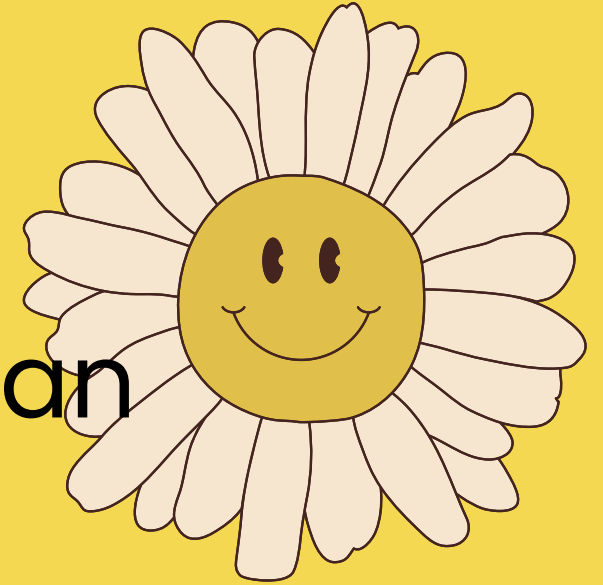

THANK YOU

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at DeChenne.consulting@gmail.com