

Group Collaboration Expectations

Additional Information:

- Participants actively work together by pooling their talents, knowledge, expertise, and unique perspectives to enhance their learning experience.
- Participants must use constructive and effective communication when discussing topics and assignments.
- Participants will work on their assignments consecutively.
- Each participant must share ownership for creating quality responses to the course assignments.
- Each participant is accountable for the success of the group.
- The group will designate a leader and notetaker.